im feel upset and down from don hanging up. this makes me feel like crap to know that he has connections to everyone. i need etinnes name out asap so he doest come forth as a witness. it will also save many others from his hurt to others who dont desreve this. i dont wish this uppon anyone. it sucks in here big time. this is my good night email. i wish i was with you. someone who acctully loves me and knows me well. with you i dont have to ask for love, you already give it. it hurts me much to be here and not giving it my all when i had the option. im sorry amber for not being there for you when you needed me. i love you, forever and always. muah night my little black sheep
